Excerpt: .to war conditions--we look for a comeback to some extent. Bankers within the last two or three years have often been surprised and startled by the loose, crude, kindergarten manner in which lads with but little experience or training have been permitted in a minor percentage of our banks to muddle their way into confidential credits --credits which should be strictly under the care of proven Credit Staff Officers. This must have been due in part to the war and its consequent employment conditions. That it should have happened was deplorable. It lowered credit standards in the profession--it lowered the standing of the banks permitting it--it lowered the character of training and type of coaching the lads were entitled to receive as students entering the credit field. When you want your watch repaired you do not take it to a blacksmith--when that vitally delicate factor in Do you value the personal equation in your banking connections? Big banks assembled more rapidly than big men to man them. Loose methods creeping into credit department service due to the War Conditions in Big Banks. Your credit with all of the sensitiveness of a watch spring should receive from the banker his most delicate touch in consideration. Credit with all the refinement of treatment should remain in the keeping of Credit Staff Officials. your business--your credit and your credit environment--is to be thrown into the commercial scales for a weighing--you will want it to receive all of...
