University of Chicago Press, Chicago and London, 2013. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 320 pages. Hardcover with dustjacket. New book. BOOKS ON BOOKS. From the great dome of the Library of Congress, to the white faade of the Seinjoki Library in Finland, to the ancient ruins of the library of Pergamum in modern Turkey, the architecture of a library is a symbol of its time as well as of its builders' wealth, culture, and learning. Architectural historian James Campbell and photographer Will Pryce traveled the globe together, visiting and documenting over eighty libraries that exemplify the many different approaches to thinking about and designing libraries. Campbell's authoritative yet readable text recounts the history of these libraries, while Pryce's stunning photographs vividly capture each building's structure and atmosphere. Together, Campbell and Pryce have produced a landmark bookÑthe definitive photographic history of the library and one that will be essential for the home libraries of book lovers and architecture devotees alike. Contents: Introduction 1. Lost Beginnings: Libraries in the Ancient World 2....
