Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Trades Unions and Strikes: Their Philosophy and Intention The following pages were written by the desire of the London Consolidated Society of Bookbinders, as expressed in the following resolution: - Lodge Meeting, Nov. 7, 1859, Mr. T. Maraton in the Chair. Resolved, - That the Secretary of this Society be requested to write an essay on the Philosophy of Trades Unions, in reply to the argument against them, to be published in the form of a pamphlet, explaining their true object and intention. (Moved by Mr. W. Franklin - Seconded by Mr. Robt. Saunders. The writer is aware of many imperfections; and doubtless many more, of which he has not lost been aware, will be discovered by those who do him the honour of perusal. Having been brought up to the trade, and for many years a workman, he has stated what he knows to be true; and if it be said that his is only the working man s view of the subject, it may be replied that such view is, of all others, the one most needed; as the press has teemed with little else than the employers view of it; - and who can form a true judgment when only one side of a question is presented to him? Although not required to do so, he has, previous to their going to the printer, read the whole of the following pages to the committee of his Society, who, in the following resolution, expressed their opinion of them: - Resolved, - That the concluding part of the Essay on the Philosophy of Trades Unions and Strikes, now read, and those read at previous...
