This series by Mr. Johnson represents a significant contribution to the theory and practice of building self esteem among young African American males. He has developed a unique and effective technique for utilizing a biblical orientation as a foundation for building self esteem among this much neglected group. The book presents biblically based readings and exercises that have been shown to be effective in helping these young men view themselves as loved and important because they are not only precious human beings but also spiritual beings. Isaac A. Robinson MSW, Ed. D Retired Chairman and Professor Emeritus Department of Social Work North Carolina Central University Not a ROACH but a Warrior is an amazing master work, written and created with the ability to reach the one who everybody seems to overlook.
