

Like a Misunderstood Salvation and Other Poems

By Aime Cesaire

Northwestern University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 112 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.7in. Annette Smith and Dominic Thomass new translations of Aim Csaire's Like a Misunderstood Salvation and Solar Throat Slashed (poems deleted) expose to a new audience a pivotal figure in twentieth-century French literature. This collection presents the early and last stages of a poets course, encapsulating in one volume Csaire's entire literary career and creative evolution as perhaps the only French poet writing simultaneously at the crossroads of the avant-garde and classical movements. This volume's inclusion of previously deleted poems from Solar Throat Slashed is politically important; despite their initial exclusion from a French republication of Soleil Cou Coup in 1961, these thirty-one poems are crucial to understanding Csaire's legacy and remain of tremendous pertinence today as they provide helpful ways of thinking about and contextualizing discussions on race, identity, global identities, and the links between black consciousness and social consciousness.
