Ibooks, United States, 2006. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 236 x 157 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. When a research submersible becomes the latest in a string of vessels to vanish in a far corner of the South Pacific, biologist Marcus Oden and his geologist friend Nick Kondos mount a rescue attempt. As the entire staff of the tiny Ocean Sciences Institute, the unlikely pair roams the Pacific in a battered surplus seaplane, performing marine science missions. But Marcus is searching for more than hard data; he is also secretly searching for his wife who vanished years before in these same waters. The hunt for the submersible leads to a host of mysterious shipwrecks, to a group of violent Polynesian revolutionaries seeking the return of their traditional gods and culture - complete with long pig, the cannibal name for human meat - and to a menagerie of mysterious creatures that roam and swim around the forgotten island of Tanua. One of these strange denizens is Dr. Gastro Nister, a medical genius who saved his dying daughter Katya with a miracle that could not stand mainland light and so had to be hidden on the lush slopes of a distant tropic isle. Brilliant, beautiful, and apparently healed, Katya helps Nister take his miracle to the next level, one that reaches inside every human cell to twist something already there. And to change humanity. Or end it. Marcus and Nick find themselves running for their lives and the lives of everyone on Earth as they face the island's angry gods, see the dead once again walk the land and swim the sea, and learn of Nister's evolutionary plan, a plan that goes far beyond an indigenous uprising to threaten the entire globe with a genetic future that will return Man to his...
